

Humble Tribute

Dr. Ambedkar Study circle, Motilal Nehru College humbly pays respect and tribute to real hero of oppressed masses, great economist, jurist, politician, social reformer, Torch bearer of all Governments in Independent India across political inclination, Chief architect of Constitution of India and ambassador of humanity across the globe Bharat Ratna Baba Saheb Dr. B R Ambedkar on his 63rd Mahaparinirvan Divas. i.e. 6 December.

Let us join hands and move on the path shown by the great and never dying legend in service of humanity for equality, liberty and fraternity. As we are growing as India, we are experiencing more and more relevance of his visionary ideas, farsightedness and intellect for Indian society. He appropriately foretold at the time of adopting constitution in 1950 and warned...

*“We are going to enter into a life of contradictions.
In politics, we will have equality and in social and economic rights, we will have inequality. We must remove this contradiction or else who suffer from this inequality will blow up the structure.”*

----- Dr. B R Ambedkar

As a statesman, he stood for casteless society and strongly advocated for sovereign India and dignity of citizens of India free from all kind discriminations based on birth by his unique and appealing style of communication through his call

“We are Indians, firstly and lastly”

----- Dr. B R Ambedkar

He was a great champion of civil rights and shaped the idea of women empowerment and legitimized the same through constitutional safeguards for their dignity and empowerment. His benchmark of social progress was the progress of women among society and correct said

“I measure the progress of a community by the degree of progress which women has achieved”

----- Dr. B R Ambedkar
